

Georges River College Oatley Senior Campus

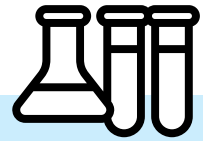

3 reasons to choose this school

1. Extensive curriculum choice
2. Extensive EAL/D support for senior students
3. Academic, arts, and leadership programs

NSW GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS

Special facilities

- Private study areas for students
- Modern science laboratories
- Modern computer laboratories
- Commercial kitchens for hospitality students
- 3D printing/engineering/robotics facilities

At Georges River College Oatley Senior Campus, we focus on providing a quality education by differentiating the curriculum to meet the needs of all students in Years 11 and 12. The campus offers a diverse academic curriculum and is recognised as offering one of the broadest number of courses in the state, including vocational education. The campus has an ethos of young adult learning which is linked to extensive student support programs in learning support and student wellbeing.

English as a second language

- Specialised facilities for individualised support
- Learning support teaching team
- Before/after school assistance

Special programs

- Student mentor programs
- After school homework club
- Debating/public speaking club
- Music programs (ensembles/ bands/ choir)
- Community volunteer programs

Languages taught

- Chinese
- French
- Japanese
- Modern Greek
- Italian

School achievements

The school's academic excellence is reflected in 80% of students progressing to university, while 146 students earned Australian Vocational Framework Qualifications, showcasing diverse achievements.

Local area features

Oatley is located 24 kilometres southwest of the Sydney CBD. Surrounded by waterways and parks the area offers cafés, restaurants, supermarkets and a regular train service to the Sydney central business district.

Visit the school website

